THIS CAVE IS A TUNNEL
NOAH REES

Tis cave is a tunnel

A fresh breeze drifts in through the entrance, brushes the backs of those present, and sends shivers down their spines. Some touch their scars. Then the piano begins to play.

In this work, the performers move between personal doubts and questions of what it means to be human. The starting point of the project is the cave as a symbol of what remains hidden in the dark. We do not know what awaits us when we enter it. Do the past and the future share similar qualities? The performers search for another way out than the one through which they entered: a light at the end of the tunnel.
