„I'm not comfortable at this party.“

‘Psycho-Buddha’ offers a subversive liturgy to sing, to scream, to share the passions and struggles of coming together, speaking up, and advocating for social justice.

Through singing together and other shared rituals, we can express our discomfort, our desire for connection and celebrate the work of activists and politically engaged choreographers.

With emotional complexity and humor, the piece addresses the efforts required to be part of society: the silent work of learning, listening, accepting feedback, and loving ourselves in our imperfections.
